TEXAS COUNTS TERRIFIC LOSS IN HURRICANE

CROP AND PROPERTY DAMAGE RUNS IN MILLIONS

BY WILLIAM C. BARNARD
Houston, Tex., Aug. 28 (AP)—An enormous task of relief and rehabilitation occupied a 300-mile stretch of the central Texas coast tonight as one of the most destructive hurricanes in gulf coast history blew itself out in east Texas.

Early estimates of terrific damage, transmitted by patched communications facilities, placed crop and property damage in the millions of dollars.

Battered sea-level communities down the fertile, well-populated coast sent fragmentary reports that drew a bleak picture of wrecked towns, hundreds homeless, crops destroyed. Three persons were dead and at least 12 injured.

Damage to the western end of the Texas rice crop was estimated in the millions of dollars.

Soldiers Fight Snakes

There were these preliminary and unofficial estimates of damage: $750,000 to $1,000,000 in the Port Lavaca area; $500,000 at Rockport; $750,000 at Port Arkansas, and $500,000 at Corpus Christi.

From Victoria, 90 miles southwest of here, came a Foster Field report that seawater had risen over Matogorda Island in some places, and that ten enlisted men and an officer marooned on the island fought off hundreds of rat snakes that sought safety on high sand dunes.

Col. Roy W. Osborn, commanding officer of Foster Field, flew over the coastal area during the height of the storm and commented that "it was unbelievable."

The entire coastline appeared under water. Everywhere you could see was water, except an occasional high spot where hundreds of cattle were trying to crowd.

Japs Get Prisoners Set For Evacuation In American Planes

BY RICHARD CUSHING

Okinawa, Wednesday, Aug. 29. (AP)—The Japanese are readying 6,125 allied military prisoners of war and 94 civilian internees at two camps within a 10 mile radius of Atsugi air field for evacuation by American planes tomorrow.

This was disclosed today by Col. Delbert Ward, San Antonio, Tex., Fifth AAF engineer who was in the first American plane to land on Atsugi airfield yesterday.

Ward told newsmen he had questioned Nipponese medical officers regarding the prisoners and was told that no American aid was needed. They said they would have the entire complements of both camps ready for evacuation.

Of the total, about 400 were described as hospital cases.

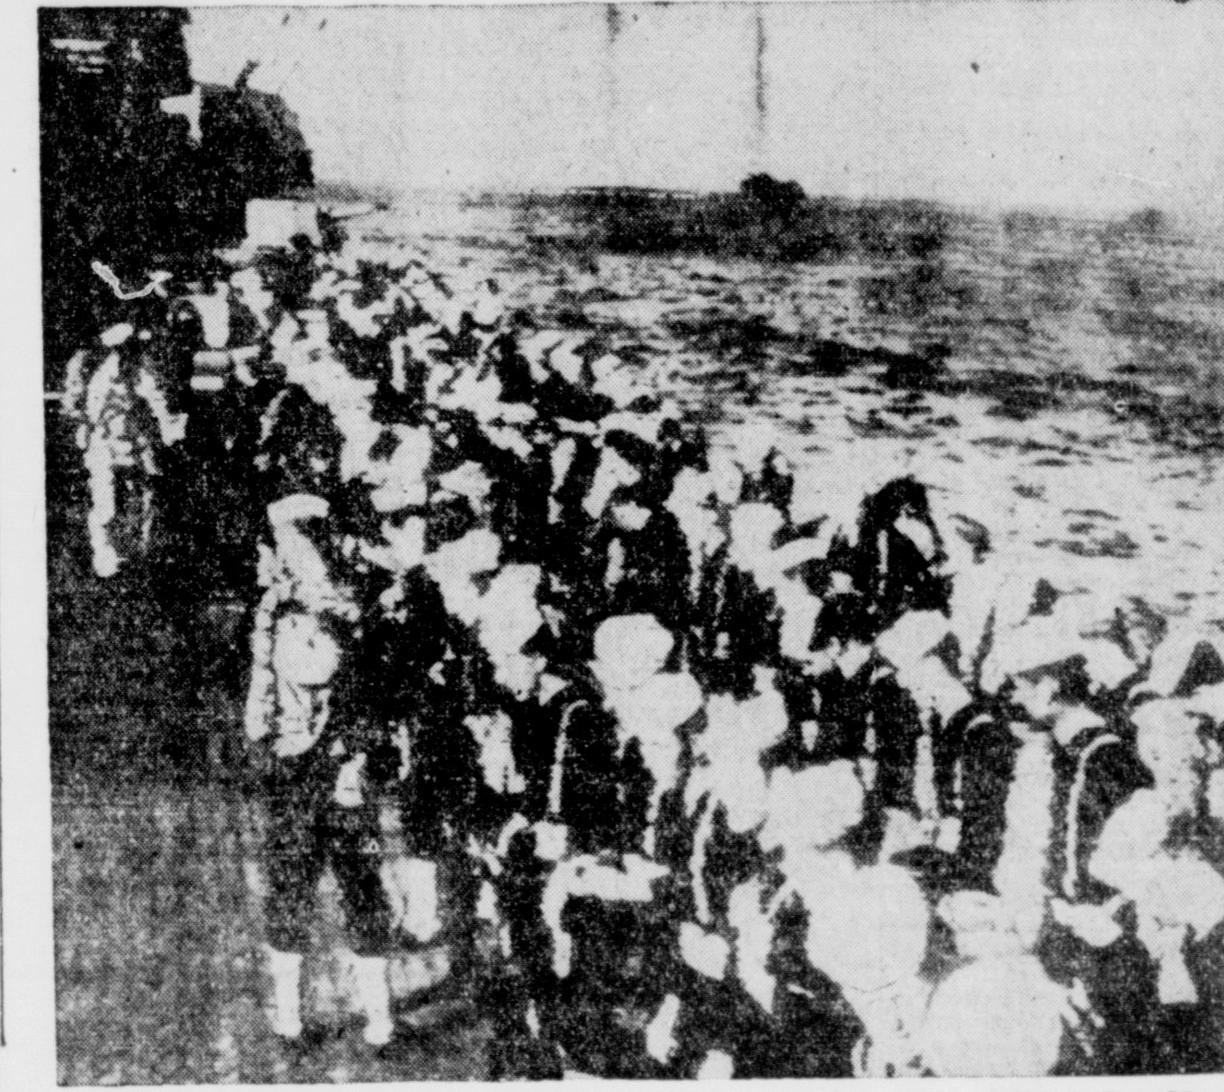

While the Japanese said the prisoners were "Allied" they presumably were chiefly Americans.

McKAY LOSES MOVE IN COURT

Attempt To Discredit Grand Jury Attacked By Prosecutor

Lansing, Aug. 28 (AP)—Special grand jury prosecutor Kim Sigler today accused Frank D. McKay, Grand Rapids politician charged with five co-defendants to a liquor graft conspiracy, of "a scurrilous attempt" to discredit the grand jury investigating graft in state government.

Sigler made his accusation during a hearing before Circuit Judge Leland W. Carr, the one-man grand juror, on motions for a separate trial and to strike part of the testimony.

Judge Carr denied both motions and ignored an affidavit of prejudice from McKay, asserting the judge was biased because he had been an unsuccessful candidate for the Republican nomination for state supreme court justice and that "Leland W. Carr attributed his defeat" to McKay's influence.

The judge asserted that "so far as allegations of prejudice are concerned, they are wholly unfounded." Sigler declared that the affidavit "was very close to contempt."

The co-defendants accused with McKay of the conspiracy to corrupt the liquor control commission are William H. McKeighan, former mayor of Flint; Fisher L. Layton of Flint; Earl and Charles Williams, and Charles Leiter of Detroit, all former liquor sales representatives. Fred R. Walker of Detroit represented all defendants in the arguments before Judge Carr.

ARMY REVISES POINT SYSTEM FOR RELEASES

AROUND 5,500,000 MEN SCHEDULED FOR DISCHARGE

Washington, Aug. 28 (AP)—The army reported today it was revising its point system to speed up discharges and would reduce its strength from 8,000,000 to 2,500,000 men by next July 1.

War department officials, testifying before the house military committee, nevertheless supported President Truman's proposal to keep on drafting men for military service. They made no specific mention, however, of the chief executive's suggestion that only men 18 to 25 years old be drafted, for terms limited to two years.

During their appearance before the committee they outlined plans for:

1. Establishing a point system for releasing officers—the present one covers only enlisted men.

2. Reducing from 85 to 80 the number of points required for discharge of enlisted personnel.

3. Barring from overseas duty all men with 60 points—a cut from 75.

4. Recomputing all points, now based on calculations made May 12, "as soon as General MacArthur tells us he does not need any more combat men."

New Age Limit

Maj. Gen. Stephen G. Henry, assistant chief of personnel, told the committee the recomputation would give men more points so that those overseas "who now have approximately 72 points will be eligible for immediate discharge."

Also, he added, each of the major services and each rank will have a different point score, which details will be announced later.

Another small group of men will be discharged after General MacArthur's needs drop by reducing the age figure from 38, Henry said. He declined to disclose the new age limit.

Regarding women in service, Henry said, the new point score for WACs will be reduced from 44 to 41. He estimated that 37,000 WACs would be left in service by next July.

Helpless Wife, 84, Found Beside Body Of Dead Husband

Grand Rapids, Aug. 28 (AP)—Attracted by her calls, neighbors turned to the aid of an 84-year-old wife whom they found lying beside the body of her husband dead since Sunday.

Coroner Paul W. Blossen said the woman, totally incapacitated, was in bed with the body for two days. At St. Mary's hospital where the woman, Mrs. Sophia Bennett, was removed, her condition is said to be improving.

The committee unanimously condemned this and certain other price control methods, asked that more goods be removed from price control, and asserted that more liberal policies would encourage production of goods.

Washing machines, irons and aluminum pots and pans have been priced.

Pontiac, Mich., Aug. 28 (AP)—The two small sons of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Willet of Pontiac drowned late today when a motorboat operated by their father overturned in Sylvan Lake. They are David, 2, and Gary Lee, 5.

Willett and two older girls who were riding in the boat were picked up by two boys in a rowboat but one of the girls, six-year-old Gwendolyn Hummel, suffered severe cuts from the motorboat's propeller. She was taken to St. Joseph hospital, where her condition was said not to be critical.

Neither of the bodies nor the motorboat was recovered.

Hero Of Corregidor, Lt. Gen. Wainwright Reaches Chungking

BY SPENCER MOOSA

Chungking, Aug. 28 (AP)—Lt. Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright, 62-year-old American hero of Corregidor, arrived in Chungking today from a Japanese prison camp in Manchuria and his prison-taught face broke into a smile as he announced: "I'm all right."

With him in two giant American transport planes came seven other American generals—their names may not yet be disclosed—seven British generals and some 16 other American, British and Dutch military and civilian internees.

In Washington, the war department said Wainwright expects to follow Gen. Douglas MacArthur into Tokyo. Wainwright plans to leave Chungking Thursday for Manila, then proceed to the Japanese capital.

The department said Wainwright advised he would be accompanied to Tokyo by Brig. Gen. Lewis C. Beebe, Faribault, Minn., captured in the Philippines and recently freed; Col. John Pugh, Maj. Thomas Dooley and T/Sgt. H. Carroll, also former prisoners. (CNC Correspondent Stefan Andrews quoted Wainwright as saying in an interview in Chungking that he was the "happiest man in the world and feeling 20 years younger than he did 10 days ago" before being released from his Manchurian prison camp.)

Wainwright came out of three years, four months and three weeks of internment since he raised the flag of surrender over the last bomb-blasted American-held soil in the Philippines on May 6, 1942. They were three silent years in which Wainwright's fate was unknown.

As he landed, an official handed Wainwright a photograph of his wife, Kitty. He looked at it long and intensely, leaning on his walking stick as a crowd left him temporarily alone with his thoughts.

Wainwright and his group, including the pre-war governors of Singapore, Hong Kong, North Borneo, and the Dutch East Indies, flew to Chungking via Russian-occupied Mukden via Sian in Shensi province. Wainwright arrived in the first plane, piloted by Col. James H. S. Rasmussen, of Phoebe, Va., and Capt. H. E. Suko, of Menomonie, Wis.

HIGHER RETAIL PRICES DENIED

Storekeepers Must Cut Profits On New Goods, Says OPA

BY STERLING F. GREEN

Washington, Aug. 28 (AP)—The nation's storekeepers fought OPA today for higher retail prices on new peacetime goods—but didn't get them.

The major target of the business was OPA's ruling that vacuum cleaners, washers and other goods long out of production must come back to the stores at their 1942 prices, or very little higher.

OPA does grant increases to the manufacturers when their costs of labor and materials go up. So dealers must pay higher costs for their merchandise.

Therefore they must cut their profit margins, so that the cost to the consumer stays put—at or near 1942 prices. The OPA calls it "cost absorption."

The committee unanimously condemned this and certain other price control methods, asked that more goods be removed from price control, and asserted that more liberal policies would encourage production of goods.

Washing machines, irons and aluminum pots and pans have been priced.

Kaiser - Frazer Interests Hope To Open Up New Auto Factory

Detroit, Aug. 28 (AP)—Henry J. Kaiser, Jr., son of the west coast industrialist, came to Detroit today to make an inspection with other representatives of the recently organized Kaiser-Frazer corporation, of the Willow Run bomber plant facilities.

Young Kaiser said he planned to confer with Joseph W. Frazer, and "attempt to formulate an offer to make the government for Willow Run."

"I cannot say what will come out of all this," Kaiser said, "but we believe we have a very good chance of getting the plant."

When the Kaiser-Frazer corporation was organized it was announced it would produce a car known as the Kaiser in the low priced field, and one to be named the Frazer in the medium priced bracket.

Frazer, president and chairman of Graham-Paige Motors Corp., is president and general manager of the Kaiser-Frazer corporation and Kaiser is his board chairman.

Young Kaiser said today that no other money than that of Frazer and his father will be invested in the corporation.

GI's Get Jump On Folks Back Home At Former Hitler Stadium

Nuremberg, Germany, Aug. 28 (AP)—Getting the jump on the folks back home the American soldiers in the European theater of operations start their own baseball "World Series" Thursday in a setting symbolizing their victory—Hitler's vast party stadium now rechristened Soldiers' Field.

The semi-finals will be on a double elimination basis with the two survivors tangling in a three-out-of-five series for the title.

The Communications Zone nine has Pitchers Sam Nahem, once of the St. Louis Cardinals, and Russ Bauers, ex-Pittsburgh hurler.

Phils Drop 13 Out Of 14 To Dodgers

Brooklyn, Aug. 28 (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers made it 13 out of 14 for the season over the lowly Phillips today when they romped to an easy 7 to 1 victory and increased their third place margin over the idle Giants to two games.

Art Herring, who left the game after two innings because of a shoulder kink, and Les Webber kept the Phils' eight hits well scattered as the latter received credit for his fourth straight win since rejoicing the Dodgers after a stay with their Montreal farm. The Dodgers got to Jack Kraus and Rene Monteagudo for nine safe blows, which they used to a good advantage together with four errors by the Phils.

schedule, the landings are supposed to coincide with his own at Atsugi, where he arrives tomorrow to assume the military rule of the vanquished empire.

Japanese naval ship pilots who guided the small force that entered Tokyo Bay yesterday, pictured to correspondents a nation hungry, its air force grounded for lack of fuel and its transportation system wrecked by the incessant bombings before the atomic terror was loosed upon Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

Rear Adm. Oscar C. Badger aboard his flagship, the light cruiser San Diego, led the little squadron of warships into Tokyo Bay yesterday and anchored a few hundred yards off Yokosuka.

The Japanese pilots said the waters had been cleared of mines, but Badger took no chances and sent two minesweepers on ahead. One of his destroyers exploded an unswept mine.

Behind the San Diego came the Destroyers Yarnall, Twining, Stockham, and Wedderburn, the high-speed destroyer-transport Gosselin with marine landing parties and correspondents, and the seaplane tenders Suisun, MacKinnon and Gardner's Bay.

The fortress islands guarding Yokosuka appeared deserted, Dopping reported.

Tea Party Spurned

Nimitz, who will sign the surrender articles on the Missouri for the United States, will make the Battleship South Dakota his flagship. It was not immediately clear whether he would go on to Tokyo Bay at once with Halsey and the Missouri.

The advance airborn party arrived in work clothes and was met by Lt. Gen. Eizo Arisuye of the Japanese army general staff and other dignitaries, respondent in full uniform and samurai swords.

MacArthur's representative was Col. C. H. Tench and he set about at once to get the field ready for his chief. Later naval officers landed, including Commander Harold Stassen, former governor of Minnesota, now Halsey's aide.

A returning naval officer said the Japanese attempted to make a tea party of the event, leading officers to a pavilion and serving orange-ade, but the Americans were there for business and went to work.

Two jeeps were landed with a portable two-way radio for directing the heavy traffic tomorrow, when transport planes will begin landing at three-minute intervals.

Complaints From Korea

Japanese imperial headquarters sent a last-hour message to MacArthur asking for another conference before the fullness signing of the surrender document, but there was no indication the supreme Allied commander had replied.

The Japanese said they wanted to obtain full understanding in advance on certain points regarding the manner and stages of executing the terms."

They also declared their residents in Korea, where events had taken a sudden turn for the worse, were in "imminent danger" and that their commanders in southern Korea "eagerly await the arrival of Allied forces" to take over and "maintain peace and order."

There was no elaboration on this complaint. The Japanese have been asking urgently for permission to evacuate their nationals in that long-subjugated land, northern parts of which have been occupied by the Russians.

General Stilwell ordered Japanese commanders in the Ryukyu, the strategic islands south of Japan proper, to get in contact immediately with his U. S. Tenth Army headquarters on Okinawa and arrange to surrender.

In the Philippines, arrangements proceeded for the surrender of 10,000 Japanese troops who fled into the uncharted wilds of the Sierra Madre mountains of eastern Luzon.

BRASS POLISHED UP

Washington, Aug. 28 (AP)—A ship's ventilator head on the battleship Missouri will serve as the "table" on which Japan's emissaries will sign her former surrender.

Lt. Robinson F. MacLean, Los Angeles, Calif., Navy photographer who returned to Washington today from covering operations of the fleet off Japan said those were the plans when he left the Missouri, August 20.

The ship's crew, he said, was busy polishing brass for the surrender setting.

The ventilator head, eight feet in diameter, is just outside the captain's cabin, one level above the ship's weather deck in the

Carrier Enterprise, "Sunk" 6 Times, May Be Historic Symbol

Washington, (AP)—The "Galloping Ghost," which was "sunk" six times by the Japanese radio, but went right on fighting, may be preserved as a symbol of the navy's history in this war.

She is the flattop Enterprise, veteran of nearly every major engagement in the Pacific. She was damaged 15 times by Japanese action but still is capable fighting ship. She is home now for repair of the serious injuries inflicted by a suicide plane May 14 near Japan.

At the time, the Enterprise was serving as flagship for Vice Admiral Marc A. Mitscher, then commander of task force 58. Only a few days earlier he had shifted his flag from the Carrier Bunker Hill after it had been damaged in Kamikaze attack.

The fires on the Enterprise were brought under control in 17 minutes and extinguished in a half hour and although forced to pull out of action, the vessel is still afloat and—in the navy's book—the "Fightingest carrier in the Fleet."

The Enterprise, show log reads like the history of Pacific naval warfare from Pearl Harbor to Okinawa on the morning of May 14 while task force 58 was assaulting Japanese Kamikaze bases.

Four would-be attackers were shot down by the carrier's guns and planes. Then, a Kamikaze darted through the screen of protecting fighter planes and streaked for the "Galloping Ghost."

"When it appeared certain," he would overshoot his mark," the navy related, "the Jap pilot flipped his plane on its back and plunged into the forward part of the flight deck. His bomb exploded under the forward elevator, sending it flying into the air."

"Fires immediately roared through the forward part of the ship. Officers and men pushed through smoke and flame to pour tons of water into the burning area."

In the meantime, gun crews dumped ammunition overboard until heat drove them from their posts. Then they joined the fire-fighting crews in bringing the flames under control and extinguishing them.

The Enterprise, at one time during the war the only carrier left in the South Pacific, rose from her Tokyo-dug "grave" many times to sock the enemy. In 275,000 action-packed miles, the carrier's planes and guns shot down 911 Japanese planes and her planes sank 71 enemy ships and damaged or probably sank 192 others.

Michigan Gets 199 New Laws To Take Effect On Sept. 6

Lansing, (AP)—One hundred and ninety nine new laws will become effective in Michigan Sept. 6, the final date for bills passed by the 1945 Legislature which were not given immediate effect.

The navy, reporting the Enterprise's latest damage today, said 12 officers and enlisted men were killed and 67 injured when the Kamikaze hit. The explosion blew her forward plane elevator 400 feet in the air and started several fires.

At the time, the Enterprise was serving as flagship for Vice Admiral Marc A. Mitscher, then commander of task force 58. Only a few days earlier he had shifted his flag from the Carrier Bunker Hill after it had been damaged in Kamikaze attack.

The Escanaba Daily Press

sult in a traffic toll far in excess of these tragic figures.

The determination of Delta county law enforcement officials to take a positive stand against motorists who fail to assume their responsibilities will receive the applause of every conscientious citizen.

In connection with this campaign, it is well to remember that the most dangerous motorist is the one who drives while under the influence of liquor. A driver who is most cautious under normal conditions invariably becomes a wild and reckless driver when he mixes alcohol with gasoline. Too often in the past there has been a tendency to bargain with this defendant after he has been arrested for driving while under the influence of liquor. The charge of drunk driving, the penalty for which includes revocation of the driver's license, frequently is reduced to reckless driving in exchange for a plea of guilty to the lesser offense.

While this avoids the expense of a trial, it retains the menace of a very dangerous driver on the public highways. In the long run, it is a very poor bargain.

Return of Prisoners

WHEN the Americans held in Japanese prisoner of war camps return to the United States and tell their stories of how they were treated by the Japanese, we shall know more about the problems that will be encountered in the occupation of Japan in the months ahead.

It is to be hoped that the military authorities do not clamp any restrictions on the repatriated war prisoners and that they will be permitted to tell their stories without restraint.

The fliers who accompanied Doolittle in the first historic raid on Japan and who were captured by the Japanese have been able to tell only portions of their stories thus far. This is understandable since many Americans still are under Japanese control and they should not be subjected to further humiliation and possible reprisals at the hands of their captors.

We know that the life of our war prisoners in Japanese camps was intolerable, with insufficient food and many other hardships. The American public, however, would like to learn more about the "special treatment" ordered for the Doolittle fliers by Emperor Hirohito after he had suspended their death sentence imposed by a Japanese court martial. Some of their companions apparently actually had been executed.

In a very short time, probably within a week, Allied war prisoners in Japan and Japanese occupied territory will be liberated by order of General MacArthur and they will be returned to their homes for joyous reunions.

Then we shall learn more about character of the Japanese who have been their captors for nearly four years. This information will be extremely useful in determining the severity of our occupation rule in Japan.

FOREST FIRE CAUSES

(Milwaukee Journal)

It still is human carelessness, in one form or another, that causes forest fires. Settlers set fire to stump piles or even standing brush, to clear land. That practice, to be sure, has been largely reduced by the fire fighting forces of the state, which require permits before individuals can burn stumps or other forest growths.

But it is evident that men may, at times, set fires and then claim that others, or impersonal agencies, were responsible.

But, forgetting settlers—who have been controlled to a degree and have learned through bitter experience—there are others who are responsible for forest fires.

The cigaret and cigar smokers rank high in this group. They toss aside lighted butts into roadside grass or even into slash, often not realizing how tinder-like such growths or accumulations may be.

There are campers who fail to put out small fires lighted to cook their meals; locomotives with inadequate spark arresters; even loggers who get careless with pipes, noonday cooking fires, or matches. Lightning causes some fires but not many.

Meanwhile the so-called fall fire season is approaching in Wisconsin and already some forest undergrowth, and the leaves on some trees, have lost much of their succulence and fire resistant qualities.

Oregon has just been experiencing, in fact still is experiencing, one of the most disastrous fires in American history. With that example before their eyes, maybe the citizens of Wisconsin and visitors within the state can be unusually careful this year.

MAY I SERVE YOU?

The customer is going to be right again one of these days. Insolence, indolence, and incompetence will be war casualties in the reconversion to courtesy which an open labor market will insure. Employers will be released from the verbal reprimand they have been forced to undergo for three and a half long years, and certain marked employees will either be released or transferred to positions which require no contact with the public.

Windshields will be wiped once more, free air become a bit freer. Apologies need no longer precede a request for the privilege of making a purchase. A Spree in Speed

WITH the lifting of gasoline rationing and the resultant increase in motor traffic at a time when it is apparent that many automobiles are not in proper shape to indulge in a postwar speed spree, the decision of Delta county law enforcement officials to maintain accurate records of traffic violations is a commendable one.

The present average age of passenger cars is more than eight years, compared with an average age of four and one-half years in 1940. Many tires have been driven far beyond their normal life. Drivers and pedestrians have become accustomed to top speeds of 35 or 40 miles per hour. In addition, relatively few people who started driving after 1941 have had any experience with high speed traffic.

In 1941, there were 40,000 deaths and 1,400,000 injuries on American highways. A sudden return to pre-war speeds under present conditions would undoubtedly re-

World Events Analyzed

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington—What General MacArthur and his American forces are undertaking in Japan has never happened before in military history. Most of us, in the excitement that came with the ending of hostilities, failed to realize just how large a task this was, and how beset with perils and uncertainties.

We are hoping to take the peaceful surrender of an army of 2,500,000. This army is in its homeland. It has never been defeated. It is made up in considerable part of fanatics who have been schooled from birth to believe in the invincibility of their military might and of their nature. Such an undefeated army on such a scale has never surrendered before. Extensive fighting may still be ahead. Our military planners both here and in the Philippines have kept this possibility — even probability—uppermost in their minds in working out the surrender details.

We jump so quickly to the easy conclusion. Even after the Tokyo area is occupied, we may find organized resistance in the outlying parts of Japan.

This leads, of course, directly to the question of military manpower. To win the peace, we must live up to the responsibilities we have undertaken in the world. That will not be possible if popular clamor defeats the plan to keep an army sufficiently large to police the Axis nations for a period of years.

The force that MacArthur is taking into Japan is larger than a full-scale invasion army. It has to be larger to insure minimum security.

We must keep a garrison force in the Philippines. At other points in the Far East, too, American troops will be necessary to prevent the peace from being entirely dissipated in chaos and anarchy.

PATIENCE IS REQUIRED

This does not mean that we will allow ourselves to be drawn into the Chinese maelstrom. Tremendous pressure is being put on Washington to intervene in the Chinkung-Communist dispute. But that pressure is being resisted.

A large proportion of MacArthur's men in the Japanese invasion—and, in many respects, it is an invasion—have had more than two years of service overseas. They would have bitterly resented any lowering of the point scale for men from the European theater while the present task of occupation still lay ahead. In fact, before the Japanese surrender came, MacArthur bluntly warned the war department that he would not be able to hold an invasion army together if the rate of discharge of men long in service were accelerated.

When veterans are taken out of a division and given discharges, the fighting team is broken up. Those veterans are seagulls and platoon leaders. It is necessary to put together a new team. That takes time, training, patience.

We could all do with a little more patience in this critical interval. If Congress comes back determined to "Bring the Boys Home," regardless of our responsibilities and obligations, then our present military strength can vanish as though it had been shattered by an atomic bomb.

An army of contentious men wanting to get out is no longer an army. It is a town meeting under arms, and town meetings cannot fight wars or hold victories.

The little group of men who rule Japan, using the God-Emperor as a front, know now they made a fatal mistake in appraising American psychology. They have said as much since the surrender. They thought we were so weak and soft we would not fight back.

This ruling caste has not given up. They will begin to plan and study for another trial at world conquest. Now they will try to re-appraise American psychology.

If they see we are all too ready to dismiss the war and our responsibilities, they will be greatly encouraged. That will be a sign to plot swift revenge. That could mean that all our sacrifices this time were in vain.

Take My Word For It . . . Frank Colby

From D. F. R., Glendale: Add to your collection of odd words: veris militude—every consonant is directly followed by a vowel. This is perhaps the longest word in English following this pattern.

From E. C. R., Fort Worth: Speaking of French menus, I am reminded of my first hotel meal in Lyon, France, in 1918. Four or five of us A. E. F. soldiers, knowing little French, just ordered blindly from the fancy names of the dishes on the menu.

After surviving the ordeal of eating "escargots," which we took to be an unpalatable and very poor grade of oysters, we learned to our dismay that we had been eating snails!

Answer: Right. Escargot is the popular name in French for the edible snail. The word is pronounced: ess-kar-GO—the "a" is flat as in "carrot."

From E. H. D., Taunton: Can you distinguish between "flotsam" and "jetsam" so that I can tell one from the other?

Answer: Flotsam describes goods or any other cargo lost in shipwreck and floating on the waves. Think of "float," to which flotsam is akin.

Answer: "Deck" is not American slang. Your own Shakespeare wrote of a "deck of cards!"

Answer: "Deck" is not American slang. Your own Shakespeare wrote of a "cheat at cards."

But, when he thought to steal the single ten, The king was slyly fingered from the deck.

INTO THE PAST

10 Years Ago—1935

DESERVING PRAISE — Perhaps it may be wrong to single out one phase of the city recreation program for praise, yet that phase is the one receiving the least publicity and, for a very short time in mid-summer, maintains a most interesting program. It is the water safety program at Ludington Park beach.

The season will close Friday night, Aug. 1, of this week. Ludington Park beach will see few swimmers after that date because the life guards — qualified Red Cross life savers — will no longer be on duty. Only the hardy and competent swimmer will visit the beach during the few remaining days of late summer.

The boys and girls who were in charge of the life saving and swimming instruction program at the beach go around these last few days with their fingers crossed. They knock on wood every little while and watch every swimmer with an eagle eye. The reason? There hasn't been a fatality at the beach so far this season, and they want to keep the record 100 per cent.

ONE OF THE BEST — From the standpoint of attendance and participation, the season at Ludington Park beach this year has been one of the best in many years, despite a summer noted for goose pimples.

There is no doubt that much of the enthusiasm for swimming displayed by local folks this summer was due in large part to the knowledge that plenty of competent life guards were on duty at the beach. Another factor was the swimming instruction classes held there under city sponsorship. These classes attracted scores of children who learned to swim. They will come back, with their chums, in the following years.

PUBLIC TRUST — The public has come to rely, perhaps too much so, on the efficiency of the life guards. If some of our swimmers had a little more respect for the danger they would not be so venturesome in the water. Besides, no matter how good a life guard may be, it is impossible for him to guard the whole Ludington Park area. That isn't his job, anyway. He is supposed to concentrate on the area designated a public beach where swimmers are supposed to stay.

Full-time life guards at the beach this year are Naomi Vinette, John Ferrari, Millicent Wills and Ethel Bennett. Miss Bennett and Miss Vinette taught swimming classes, which are now ended, and Miss Bennett has returned to her home in St. Peter, Minnesota.

Part-time guards are Mary Dolores Costley, Lois Aschinger and George LaFave. Part-time means that have other jobs that permit them to work as life guards only a part of the time the beach was open each day. Miss Costley and Miss Aschinger are employed in the city's meter department.

All of the guards have passed the required tests and are accredited Red Cross life savers.

CONSCIENTIOUS — The life guards and swimming instructors at the beach are among the city's most conscientious employees. They feel most keenly any criticism of the beach and its inadequate facilities. That these facilities are inadequate because of wartime conditions they know, yet they (as well as the public) would like to have Ludington Park beach de-

Q. Do the premiums on national service life insurance increase with the age of the insured?

A. The premium to be paid for any form of the insurance is according to the age of the person insured at the effective date of the insurance; that is, a person 30 years old will pay a higher premium rate than a person 25, but after the person is insured, the premium does not increase as his age advances.

IS DISCUSSEDChicago Pastor Relates
What He Saw At San Francisco

American people who are smug in their assumption that this is the most enlightened nation on the face of the globe, would be in for something of a jolt had they heard what Dr. Joshua Odean, pastor of the Irving Park Lutheran church, Chicago, Ill., take issue with that notion in a speech before the Manistique Rotary club Monday noon.

In literacy, says Dr. Odean, America is a poor third among the nations of the world. Sweden, he says, is nearly one hundred per cent literate, then comes Soviet Russia, which two decades ago was one of the most benighted nations on the face of the globe; America is third and Japan a close fourth.

Dr. Odean made this statement in the course of a talk in which he told of his experiences at the Peace conference at San Francisco, which he attended as a member of the American delegation.

The conference, he stated was one of the most impressive events he has witnessed in his entire career. It was readily apparent that the greatest minds of the world were assembled at that gathering.

Particularly revealing to him, he said, was the keen intelligence of the men who represented China at the gathering. This was particularly noticeable in the way they presented China's claims and interests before the assembly. Both the factions headed by Chiang Kai Chek and the Communists had able men present to demand for the common people of that country a program guaranteeing equal rights, self determination, suffrage and education.

Soviet Russia, he said, displayed by far the greatest ability at

WANT SEWER
EXTENSIONProperty Owners On Two Streets Petition
Council

A multitude of minor matters, chief among which were the consideration of a petition for the extension of sewers and the re-evaluation of certain property owned by the city, occupied most of the time at Monday evening's session of the city council.

A petition signed by owners of property on Elm and New Elm streets, thoroughfares branching west from North Cedar street, requested that sewers be extended along their streets. It was explained by City Manager C. D. Manson, however, that this extension is no simple matter as a downward slope of the land makes it impractical to connect any such sewer with the main one on Cedar street, and the only other outlet would be along the river to a point where much trouble is already being encountered when water from the river at flood stage backs up at this point. Mr. Manson was instructed to write to the engineering firm from Saginaw which has a master plan of the city's sewerage system and have them suggest a way out of the difficulty.

The council went over the list of property owned by the city for the purpose of readjusting the valuations on certain items. These parcels of land and residences had come to the city through delinquent tax sales and the reappraisals were made Monday evening with a view of making them reasonable investments for those who wish to purchase them. The property will, in time, be posted for sale.

Grimm's Birthday Happy As Cubs Win; Tigers Swamp Browns, 10-1

BRUIN 5-GAME SLUMP HALTED

Peanuts Lowrey Brings In Bacon With 4th Inning Homer

Pittsburgh, Aug. 28 (P)—Manager Charley Grimm was 46 today and his first place Chicago Cubs made it a happy birthday by emerging from their five-game slump and beating the Pittsburgh Pirates 6-3 before a crowd of 23,355.

Harry "Peanuts" Lowrey's fourth inning homer with two aboard provided the winning margin after the Cubs had trailed 2-0.

Rank Borowy, acquired in mid-season from the New York Yankees, won his fifth game since donning a Cub uniform as he scattered 10 hits.

Things appeared bleak for the Chicagoans when Pittsburgh homped on Borowy for two runs in the first, scored on a single by Frankie Gustine with the bases loaded.

But Lowrey came through with his game-winning smash in the fourth after two were out. The Cubs added another run in the fifth, one in the seventh and their final tally in the ninth.

Pittsburgh scored its last run in the eighth.

The win enabled the Cubs to hold their 2½ game lead over the onrushing Cardinals who were playing at Cincinnati tonight.

Chicago 000 310 101—6 8 1
Pittsburgh 200 000 010—3 10 2

Borowy and Rice; Ostermueller and Salkeld.

Feller Wins Again;
White Sox Fall, 8-2

Chicago, Aug. 28 (P)—Cleveland's Indians jumped on Bill Dietrich for five hits and four runs in the fifth inning to give ex-sailor Bob Feller an 8-2 victory over the Chicago White Sox before 26,084 fans tonight. It was Feller's second win in as many starts since his discharge from the Navy last week.

Cleveland 010 140 110—8 12 1
Chicago 000 110 000—2 8 2

Feller and Hayes; Dietrich, J. Johnson (6) and Tresh.

Schmeling Is Flop As Book Publisher

Bunde, Germany, Aug. 28 (P)—Former world heavyweight champion Max Schmeling, who said he wanted to publish books to "re-educate the youth of Germany," has been denied a license to publish by the British Control Commission, it was disclosed today.

British authorities were expected to start a probe soon into reports that Schmeling's elaborate publishing plan had the backing of high British army officials, as well as monied interests within Germany.

The German pugilist—the only man to knock out Joe Louis—is living with his actress wife, Anna Ondra, at Hamburg.

A high-ranking British officer on the control commission said: "Schmeling was nothing more than a political champion—he was used as a symbol of Nazism throughout the war for the German youth. We don't want such a man publishing books for what he contends will be the re-education of German youth now that the war is over."

Flag-Hungry Cards Defeated By Reds

Cincinnati, Aug. 28 (P)—The Cincinnati Reds surprised themselves and the National league generally tonight defeating the pennant-hungry St. Louis Cardinals 3-2 in a game decided by Shortstop Eddie Miller's eighth-inning homerun.

The Cincinnati victory gave the league-leading Chicago Cubs a cold water treatment as Chicago moved ahead to three and a half games in the standings by dint of their 6-3 triumph over Pittsburgh.

Martin Marion opened the third with a double and scored when Johnny Hopp, pinchhitting for Gardner, singled. Both clubs scored in the eighth. St. Louis got theirs on two singles and a walk but Miller sewed the contest up when he hit one of Red Barrett's sharp pitches for his eighth homerun.

Despite this handicap, Lt. Francis Conway, of Syracuse, N. Y., was conducting a nine-flight G. I. tournament over the 12 holes. Corporal Don Johnson, a Wisconsin lad, was the medalist with a score of three under par, which is 45 for 12 holes.

DOUBLEHEADER

Stonington and Ensign divided a doubleheader Sunday. Stonington won the first game, 20 to 0, but lost the second game, 12-7, with the Stonington Reserves having most of the game.

The Buckeye will play the White Birch at Flat Rock on Friday night at 7 o'clock.

LIEUNGH'S WIN AGAIN

Lieungh's Music Store beat the Birdseye last night 14 to 12.

Batteries were: Lieungh's, Gartland and Eliason; Birdseye, Larson and Curtis.

Ferrell's Wallop Wins For Senators

Philadelphia, Aug. 28 (P)—The Washington Senators defeated the Philadelphia Athletics 6-5 today on Rick Ferrell's first home run of the season, a low line drive that bounced off the railing into the lower left field stands in the ninth inning.

Washington 103 000 011—6 8 2
Philadelphia 003 101 000—5 11 0

Pieretti, Carasquel, Stone, Ullrich and Ferrell; Black, Bowles and Rosar, George.

HOMERS UNABLE TO STOP YANKS

New York, Aug. 28 (P)—The New York Yankees put together a combination of fives today in whipping the Boston Red Sox 8 to 7 despite three homers that accounted for five of the Sox's runs.

For the Yanks it was their fifth straight victory and for Walt Dubiel it was his fifth successive win over the Red Sox.

While Johnny Lazor, Eddie Eddie and Skeeter Newsome were hitting homers for the Sox, the Yanks made the most of their 11 hits, all but one of them singles, off four Boston hurlers. The quartet of pitchers handed out nine bases on balls, five of them by Rookie Randy Heflin, who was charged with the defeat.

Boston 030 104 000—7 10 0

New York 000 100 100—8 11 0

Heflin, Woods, Ryba, Haussmann and Steiner; Dubiel, Turner and Robinson.

BETTER WORLD NOT ACHIEVED

Says Science, Philosophy
And Religion Missed
Their Target

New York—Science, philosophy and religion have been ineffective in making the world a better place to live in because they have not been shooting at the real target, James Marshall, of the New York City Board of Education, declared at the opening session here of the Sixth Annual Conference on Science, Philosophy and Religion.

The real target, "the only target worth attempting," he declared, is "the well being of human beings expressed in terms of satisfactions and social behavior."

No doubt exists, he pointed out, as to the good intentions and potentialities of science, philosophy and religion. They have failed because they have been shooting at abstractions. And there have been too many musts, oughts and don'ts in our civilization.

"They may be necessary in extremity, in acute situations, but as a daily diet they irritate, they weaken the system," Mr. Marshall said. "You cannot keep a tourniquet on forever. You cannot constrict a sprained ankle with tape for a long period and expect strong muscles."

"You cannot repeat every night, 'You ought to love your mother, your country, your God,' and expect it to work. The child will say he loves mother, country and God—probably even believe it—but will his behavior evidence such love? May he not fly off the handle at home, evade his obligations as a citizen and defy, not God or his ministers perhaps, but their code of ethical behavior?"

Early conditioning in both control and home are important if not essential, he indicated, in developing the sense of adequacy and psychological security which allows a person really to understand another, to put himself in another's place and so to act according to and not merely believe in as an abstraction the Golden Rule which, he pointed out, people have enunciated in one form or another from the Inca Indians to the Buddhists of Japan.

A tire should not be worn constantly on the same wheel. Shifting them clockwise every 5,000 miles will produce even wear.

Name Permanent Board On New Airport Project

Another step in the proposed construction of a new airport northwest of Escanaba on land purchased by the government for ore dock railroad yardage was taken Monday night with the organization of a permanent airport authority board. The meeting of the Escanaba-Delta county airport committee was held in the office of Escanaba City Manager A. V. Aronson.

Directors of the airport authority board are Mayor S. R. Wickman, City Manager Aronson, Gerald J. Cleary, Gust Asp, Ben F. Sparks and Roy Overpack, secretary of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce; O. J. Thorsen and Charles Stoll, supervisors of the Delta county board of supervisors.

The directors elected Thorsen chairman of their board, and Sparks secretary. These two with Mayor Wickman and Overpack were named to compose a four-man executive board.

The executive board will handle all matters in acquisition of the land from the government for the airport site, will arrange for surveys and the construction of the airport. The land is located partly within the limits of the city of Escanaba, and partly in Delta county, west of US-2 and south of the Delta county infirmary. There is a total of 1,500 acres of government-owned land which it is hoped can be acquired for the airport.

Sparks reported yesterday that copies of reports on the proposed site for the airport, together with other pertinent information, has been prepared and mailed to C. E. Clark, RFC manager, Minneapolis; Rep. Fred Bradley, Washington, D. C.; S. B. Steers, Lansing, director of the Michigan department of aeronautics, and Joseph Horner, Chicago, regional and head of the Civil Aeronautics Administration.

It is expected that speedy and favorable action will be taken in releasing the land for airport purposes. Horner is scheduled to be in Escanaba next week to inspect the area under consideration.
